Dearest Darling - Now isn't this hell - here I am back at my old post away from you with nothing to do but wait for Friday. Can you do it - the only reason I don't lose patience and marry you against your will is your will and my infinite patience.

Thank your Mother again for me, Sweet - and Thank you. And clear - somehow you seemed to make me feel as though there was a gulf between us as I was taking leave of you this morning. Perhaps I just imagined it - I was disheartened at having to leave you for a whole week - (I don't know why you said and maybe Pough).
I want to marry you and I want to marry you bad! I am going to give you 15 days grace to be convinced I am not a liar and then I'm going to start you in a club.

Uncle Doc just came in - didn't say a thing about it. I told him I had been out with your Dad on an O.B.E.E. case nearly all night and we had overslept. It was all right. I am a fool, sweet. I don't half way realize when I am with you how very happy I am. You are a part of me. As I said - 'you were incomplete' - so I am also. As you said 'so calm, content, perfectly happy' when I'm there, and I am so much at rest I guess I don't realize it.
You see I am even yet realizing my love for you more and more - I will be a man - dear -

Because I love you. Ted.

P.S.
You have two weeks to realize the above. Then look-out

Your own - boy friend.

Did you get your Dad's repaired stethoscope?

Please, dear, if you are in town - this week - you must cut it out and give it to me I'll be there when you want me.

Yes, your plan is agreeable.
Let be there when you want me.

I gave you first to write and into the most voluminous epistle
